

Thank you for your interest in Practice Coaching. You can have all the talent you want. I look forward to working together.

- Money back guarantee: If you are not thrilled with your progress after your first session just email within three days that you would prefer not to continue, no reason necessary, and your full payment will be refunded.
- Otherwise, payments are non-refundable.
- Students are liable for the full cost of all sessions once they are booked even if they do not attend.
- I am in Los Angeles, CA and am on Pacific Time (three hours behind ET, two behind CT and one behind MT). I will communicate all times in PST. Please adjust accordingly.
- Sessions are 50 minutes in length, and may go over, so please budget an hour. Whatever the length it will yield enough information to fully occupy the practice week.
